

Limitless Riders Code of Conduct

Respect:

- *For your parents/kids, your instructor, the horses and yourself.
- *Respond when spoken to, loudly enough to be heard.
- *Frustration and anger need to be handled appropriately, abuse of the horses, or people is not tolerated. You will be told to get off and put your horse away.
- *No back talk, arguing or sarcasm.
- *Parents, please no sideline coaching

Responsibility:

- *If you use it, put it away where it goes. If you don't know where it goes, ask.
- *If you open it, close it.
- *Tack does not go on the ground.
- *If you are going to a show, you need to be at the farm the day before to get your horse ready and clean your tack.
- *If you let your horse step on your reins and break them, you will need to get them repaired or replaced.
- *Students, if you miss a lesson for behavior, grades, being grounded, or another disciplinary reason your parents will have the option to have you work off that lesson at the farm, as the lesson will not be rescheduled/refunded.
